ACTIVITY

Hot Air Balloon Ride

Experience the magic of Marrakech from the sky with an early morning hot air balloon ride. As the sun rises over the horizon, you'll float gently above the arid plains, green patches of farmland, and quaint Berber villages. The views are spectacular—stretching from the Atlas Mountains to the edge of the Agafay Desert—creating an unforgettable sense of peace and wonder.

After landing, the experience continues with a traditional Berber breakfast served in a local tent, allowing you to savor Moroccan hospitality and flavors. This activity is ideal for couples, families, or anyone seeking a unique and tranquil way to start the day in Marrakech.

ACTIVITY

Gardens of Marrakech

Marrakech is home to some of the most enchanting gardens in Morocco, offering a peaceful escape from the vibrant energy of the medina. The Majorelle Garden, with its cobalt blue walls and exotic plants, is a masterpiece of design once owned by Yves Saint Laurent. Meanwhile, the Menara Gardens, dating back to the 12th century, offer wide olive groves and a reflecting pool set against the distant Atlas Mountains.

Strolling through these lush spaces provides insight into Moroccan landscaping, history, and artistry. The gardens are not only perfect for a leisurely visit but also a haven for photography lovers and those seeking moments of calm in the heart of the Red City.

ACTIVITY

Visit of the Medina of Marrakech

Immerse yourself in the soul of Marrakech with a guided visit to its historic medina. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is a maze of narrow alleys, bustling souks, and centuries-old architecture. From the vibrant Jemaa el-Fnaa square to hidden riads and artisan workshops, every corner tells a story of tradition, trade, and daily life.

Your guide will lead you through spice markets, tanneries, and the exquisite Bahia Palace or Medersa Ben Youssef, offering cultural context and local insight. This journey through the medina is a deep dive into Marrakech's vibrant past and dynamic present.

ACTIVITY

Sidecar Experience

Your driver will collect you directly from your hotel or riad, where your vintage sidecar and driver-guide will be waiting. After a quick safety briefing, you'll hit the road, venturing through Marrakech's side streets, palm groves, and even into desert landscapes just beyond the city.

This unique and stylish experience reveals a different side of Marrakech—from bustling alleys to hidden gardens and scenic plateaus—all shared from the open-air freedom of a classic sidecar. Transfers are included, and the route can be personalized to your pace and interests.

Cooking Class in Marrakech

Discover the rich and flavorful world of Moroccan cuisine with a hands-on cooking class in the heart of Marrakech. Guided by a local chef—often in a traditional riad or outdoor kitchen—you'll learn how to prepare iconic dishes like tajine, couscous, or pastilla from scratch. Start by visiting a local market or spice shop to source fresh ingredients, while learning about the spices and techniques that make Moroccan food so unique.

After preparing your dish step-by-step, enjoy the meal you've created in a warm and authentic setting. This immersive experience not only teaches culinary skills but also offers insight into Moroccan hospitality, traditions, and daily life. Whether you're a foodie or simply curious, this cooking class is a delicious and memorable way to connect with the culture of Marrakech.

ACTIVITY

Dinner in the Agafay

A private vehicle picks you up from your hotel as the sun begins to set, whisking you away to the serene Agafay Desert. After a scenic 45-minute drive, you'll arrive at a luxurious desert camp illuminated by lanterns and candles.

Enjoy a traditional Moroccan dinner under the stars, accompanied by live music or local entertainment. The setting is intimate and unforgettable, perfect for couples or small groups. Once the evening concludes, your driver ensures a safe and relaxed transfer back to Marrakech.

ACTIVITY

Quad or Buggy Ride in the Agafay Desert

Your experience begins with a transfer from your hotel to the Agafay Desert, located about 45 minutes from the city. Upon arrival, a safety briefing and equipment fitting set the stage for a thrilling ride.

Whether you choose a quad or buggy, you'll explore rocky tracks, desert hills, and traditional villages, with scenic stops and moments to connect with the local landscape. The excursion ends with tea and light snacks before your return transfer to Marrakech.

ACTIVITY

Spa and Massage

Let yourself be transported—literally and emotionally—from the bustle of the city to a tranquil wellness oasis. The route to the spa, passing through calm residential neighborhoods or hidden riads, becomes the prelude to an experience of deep relaxation.

On arrival, indulge in a traditional Moroccan hammam treatment followed by a soothing massage with argan oil or floral essences. The peaceful ambiance, gentle lighting, and scents of eucalyptus and rose complete this perfect pause in your journey.

DAY TRIP

Ourika Valley Day Trip

Leave Marrakech behind as you drive through olive groves, red clay villages, and winding mountain roads. The changing scenery outside the car window is part of the enchantment—fresh air, traditional homes, and glimpses of local life along the way.

In the valley, explore riverside cafés, local souks, and the famous Setti Fatma waterfalls. Take a light hike or simply relax beside the rushing water. The cool mountain air and scenic beauty offer a refreshing contrast to the city's pace.

DAY TRIP

Essaouira Day Trip

The coastal road to Essaouira is a journey in itself, passing goat-filled argan trees, dusty plains, and ocean breezes that grow stronger with every kilometer. Stop along the way to visit an argan oil cooperative or simply admire the changing landscapes.

Once in Essaouira, explore its charming medina, lively harbor, and art-filled alleys. Walk the ramparts, enjoy fresh seafood, and breathe in the Atlantic air. The town's relaxed vibe and salty breeze make it one of Morocco's most beloved seaside escapes.

DAY TRIP

Aït Ben Haddou Day Trip

Set off early for a scenic drive over the High Atlas Mountains via the winding Tizi n'Tichka Pass. With each curve, the landscapes shift—from lush valleys to rocky plateaus—offering countless photo opportunities and small village views along the way.

Reach the dramatic ksar of Aït Ben Haddou, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and iconic backdrop to many films. Walk its ancient alleys, climb to the granary at the top, and take in the timeless desert views. This day is a journey through Morocco's cinematic and cultural heritage.
